The AMERICAN ECONOMIC REVIEW is published four times a year, in March, June, September, and December.

Correspondence in regard to contributions to the REVIEW should be sent to the Managing Editor, Professor Davis R. Dewey, 491 Boylston St., Boston, Mass., or to members of the Board of Editors.

Books for review should be sent to the Managing Editor.

Orders for publications, subscriptions, and applications for membership in the American Economic Association should be sent to Professor T. N. Carver, Secretary of the American Economic Association, Cambridge, Mass.

THE AMERICAN ECONOMIC ASSOCIATION

The American Economic Association is an organization composed of persons interested in the study of political economy or the economic phases of political and social questions. It was organized in 1885 and now has a membership of over 2500. It is not the organ of any party, sect, or institution. It has no creed. Persons of all shades of economic opinion are found among its members, and widely different issues are given a hearing in its annual meetings and through its publications.
